BOSTON AND MAINE LOSES HAMPDEN SUIT

(By Associated Press)
Springfield, Mass., June 19.—Chief Justice John A. Aiken, of the Superior Court today ordered the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendant in the suit of the Hampden Railroad corporation against the Boston and Maine railroad to recover a construction account of nearly four million dollars, based on the failure of the Boston and Maine railroad to ratify a lease of the Hampden road. It is said that the case will be taken to the Supreme Court on law points involved.

ARREST MEN FOR STEALING GOVT. BEEF

(By Associated Press)
New York, June 19.—Six men, civilian employees engaged in transferring beef from government warehouses in this city to transports at the docks, were arrested today and accused of theft of meat worth several thousands of dollars during the past two weeks. The names of the men were not disclosed.

Dr. Martha I. Boyer passed today in Laconia attending a meeting of the state medical board.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, June 19.—The Germans last night after a violent preliminary bombardment began an attack on Rheims between Vriigny and La Pompella, the war office announced today.

The French are resisting the German blow with entire success, on the western front of the attack the enemy wasn't able even to reach the French line. In the center before the city the Germans were completely repulsed. East of Rheims the French were equally successful.

Washington, June 19.—Continuous artillery firing in the region of Chateau Thierry and the Marne is noted in General Pershing's communiqué of yesterday as announced by the War Department today. American patrols have crossed the Marne and taken prisoners.

HOUSING PROGRAMME FOR PORTSMOUTH SETTLED

Government Will Finance the Entire Proposition

The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce and citizens consisting of Mayor S. T. Ladd, P. W. Hartford and John K. Bates, returned from Washington Tuesday night having received assurance of a settlement of the housing proposition as it applies to Portsmouth. Mr. J. W. Cassidy on the part of the United States Department of Labor met the committee and stated the government's plan. The most important action was the decision of the department to make the entire expenditure without the aid of local capital. The committee went from Washington to Philadelphia where they met Mr. A. Merritt Taylor, chief of the Housing Division, and also his assistant, Mr. Smith. The United States Shipping Board and Department of Labor will appoint a joint committee to handle the housing problems in places where naval stations and private ship plants exist. Prompt action will be taken.

The committee visited other departments and found that much was expected of Portsmouth in the way of producing ships. If Portsmouth makes good she can have anything she wants.

Washington, June 19.—Two Marine Corps casualty lists were issued today containing 130 names, divided as follows: Killed in action, 36; died of wounds, 7; died of disease, 1; wounded severely, 86.

New England names include: Killed in action, Private Gordon O'Donnell of East Holden, Me.; First Sergeant Donald A. Hunter, Westerly, R.I.; and Sergeant Irving Fuller, Mansfield, Conn.

MORLEY BUTTON TEAM TO RETIRE

Manager Goodrich of the Morley Button Co. finds it impossible to keep his team together owing to war conditions. The men are shirking about on work hours to such an extent that he cannot get his men to the game to play with any regularity. He will play the game on Thursday and then withdraw. It is possible that a team from the Newington yard will replace his line.

TURKS SACK AMERICAN HOSPITAL

Also Seize U. S. and British Consulates at Cabriv, Persia, Despite Protests of the Spanish Consul

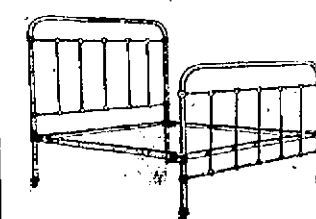

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 19.—The sacking of the American hospital at Cabriv, Persia, and the seizure of the American and British consulates there by invading Turkish troops, were reported to the State Department today by the American minister at Teheran.

If the report as received by the minister is officially confirmed, the outrage may be considered an act of war and settle the long pending question of whether the Ottoman allies of Germany should be formally listed among America's enemies.

According to the dispatch to the State Department, the Turks took the hospital over the protest of the Spanish consul in charge of representation of American interests and in defiance of the Spanish flag flying over the building.

U-BOAT RAIDER DISGUISED AS A FREIGHTER

An Atlantic Port, June 19.—At least one of the German submarines operating off the American coast is camouflaged to as to present, at a distance, the appearance of an ordinary freighter. According to Capt. Britland, commander of the New England fleet, one of the U-boat raiders, which was sighted on the submarine for several hours, said she had from about three or four feet high around her decks, with an elevated bow standing high out of the water, and looked much like a cargo carrier about 1,000 feet long.

The captain declared he was told the U-boat crew had a dance on deck every night to celebrate victories of the day.

OPPOSED TO PROMOTING MAJ. GEN. BARNETT

Washington, June 19.—The proposal to promote Maj. Gen. Barnett to the rank of lieutenant-general for the Italian corps commandant and of major-general for the corps staff officers, was disapproved, 70 to 4 by the House Tuesday.

The amendment in effect is to give the rank of lieutenant-general to a man who was never under fire, so far as the records show, declared Mr. Keating. "There has been a lobby by men directly concerned in this amendment strong enough to warrant the President to order a court-martial."

It is not the men who are going over the top in France who are asking for this amendment, I am in favor of giving the men who are doing the fighting recognized before giving it to the "rocking chair" soldiers."

Gen. Barnett, who was a spectator in the House gallery during most of the debate, was defended by Representatives Flood of Virginia, Democrat, and Britten of Illinois and Meeker of Missouri, Republicans. Mr. Flood declared that the general had "planned with any members of Congress for a measure that would prevent him."

The Sobering Effects of War.

The commencement season is again at hand, but the war has brought about market changes in the college commencement. There is no perceptible change in the graduating exercises of the schools, but at the colleges there is a quiet and solemnity in striking contrast to the programs of these events in normal times.

And the explanation is summed up in the one short word, "War." The war has taken so many students from the classroom to the colors, and so many of the alumni are also at the front that the usual spirit of gaiety and jollification is absent from the commencement exercises this year, and in its place there is sober thinking and a grim determination to throw everything smacking of hilarity to the winds until peace shall be restored to the world and re reign of universal justice ushered in.

In all of the baccalaureate sermons thus far preached the war has received its full share of attention and the remnants of the graduating classes that were left to hear them have been impressed not only with the awfulness of the struggle, but with the great and noble principles for which it is being waged by the nations that have taken their stand side by side against the unprecedented menace to liberty and civilization.

At Williams College the graduating exercises were held Monday with an unusually small attendance. Of the 126 members of the senior class only 19 were present, the others having gone to the front, being in training or doing civilian work in connection with the war. This was a splendid testimony to the loyalty of the institution, but the conditions are practically the same in all of the colleges, which have made proud records since the United States entered the war. Thousands of young men preparing themselves for careers in the professional or business world have left these institutions at the call of their country and are now in the front lines or preparing to go there.

It is this which is making the college commencement this year so subdued and so different from what it has been in the past. The spirit of merriment is absent. The world is in trouble and difficulties and students have set their faces toward the storm and will face it like men until the atmosphere clears.

It is well that this is so. It is the duty of the educational forces of the land, not only to point but to lead the way in a time of such overwhelming stress, and this the American colleges are not failing to do. False and villainous are all claims that this is the rich man's war, the poor man's war or the uneducated man's war. It is the people's war and the standing of all classes together with the solidity of a stone wall means that it will be pressed until the world is forever freed from the menace of military domination and rule by conscienceless brute force.

"I guess it's hanging for me," said Jeremiah O'Leary, the seditionary, when arrested in Oregon for trial in New York. It ought to be a good guess, but probably will not prove to be. This country is too much in the habit of handling its criminals and enemies with soft gloves.

Another Liberty Loan drive for $6,000,000,000 in October, and just now everybody is raking and scraping for the purchase of savings stamps. If the lesson of thrift is not learned by the American people it will not be because of the lack of opportunity.

Dispatches indicate that the amusements at Old Orchard, Me., were in full blast last Sunday in spite of strict orders to the contrary direct from the governor. But perhaps one prohibition is as much as the Pine Tree State should be expected to enforce at one time.

In the interest of leather and cloth conservation the height of women's shoes and the length of men's coats are to be reduced. But of course people will be permitted to follow the present styles so long as they are willing to wear their old clothes.

It seems that the commander of one of the U-boats that have been operating along the Atlantic coast was formerly connected with the United States navy. He attended a good school, but is making bad use of his education.

Director General McAdoo is talking about the mighty efficiency that is to be introduced in the railroad business. Let it be hoped that it may result in giving New England men an adequate supply of coal.

Many trolley railway companies want the privilege of raising their fares and there is little doubt that they need it. The Atlantic Shore railway in Maine is one of the latest to join the list of supplicants.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Germany Playing Her Last Card
(From the New York Herald)

That Germany's desperate activity is inspired by desire to postpone the hour of defeat is evident. Talks with German prisoners show that while Germany, through wanton and reckless sacrifice of men, is able to make a terrific onslaught, yet it is evident she has no hope of gaining Paris by this offensive.

It is manifest that the plan of the German war lords is to strengthen out the line, and by using the new front as a base to start a new offensive against the operation. However, the German hopes are now vanishing. American assistance, the French state, in a summary of opinion gathered from prisoners, was once very much underestimated in Germany but now greatly worries the German high command. The speed and activity of the Americans astounded the Huns. "They never surrender but always fight," said one prisoner in a letter. "Black snakes" and "devil hounds" are the names they have given to American units, typical alike of the Germans' terror and cowardice and showing that the scales are at last falling from their eyes.

3,000,000 Under Arms by August

(From the New York World)

It is only a few weeks since it was officially announced that over 500,000 Americans were in France. Barely a week ago Secretary Baker put the number at 700,000. Now according to General Peyton C. March, chief of staff, more than 800,000 troops are in France, and it is expected that 1,000,000 will be there by July 1. "The number of troops," he says, "we are sending across now is limited only by the capacity of the ships to carry them, and we intend to keep that up." Last January, Secretary Baker told the Senate Military Affairs Committee, which was disposed to minimize the work of the War Department that it was planned to have 1,500,000 American soldiers overseas by the end of 1918. At the present rate we shall probably do better than that. It is a question of ships to transport the men and supplies for Pershing's armies, and in that respect prospects are becoming brighter every day.

In clothing, equipment and training the Army the United States has made amazing progress. By August 1, less than seven weeks hence, Provost Marshal General Crowder reports, 3,000,000 Americans will be under arms in this country and overseas 1,000,000 volunteers and 2,000,000 drafted men. While troops are being the camps are crowded with men in moved as fast as ships can carry them training and awaiting their turn to be sent abroad.

If 1,500,000 troops reach France by Jan. 1, 1919, by that time 1,500,000 more in this country will be ready for foreign service. If it is then possible to transport and supply larger numbers, larger levies can be called for training. There is nothing boastful in the estimates. After a year of preparation the United States is merely getting into its stride. It pleases German military writer to decry for home consumption the fighting strength of the United States. With 1,000,000 men soon to be in France and 3,000,000 under arms, the American people may feel that they have made a fair beginning, while preparing for unlimited expansion.

"As Idle as a Painted Ship"

(From the Chicago Evening Post)

For more than three years now the German Admiralty has diverted the attention of the people from the ineffectiveness of the navy by the work of the submarines. Popular hope was centered upon the U-boat as the chief means of victory. It was to bring England to her knees. It was to keep the American Army in the United States. It was to force the surrender of France by cutting her off from American markets.

It is now evident that it has not done and will not do any of these things. Like the Hun gun and the bombardment of Paris, the U-boat, although vastly more destructive, has served simply as a diversion for the public mind, a source of temporary encouragement leading to grievous disappointment.

And now the people turn upon the Admiralty and ask: "What of the big battleships lying in the Kiel Canal? Are they capable of nothing more than sailing a few Russian islands in the Baltic and the Gulf of Finland? Why cannot they prevent troops and munitions crossing the channel between England and France?"

And the Admiralty is forced to answer that there are geographical barriers in the way of doing what the people demand. It is all very well to blame it on geography, but the people are not likely to be satisfied with this reply. There is more than a geographical barrier—there is the French fleet and the American fleet, and it is a real barrier, as the Admiralty admits by implication.

The consciousness is dawning on the German people that even a victory in France would leave Germany the prisoner of the Allied fleets. She can take to the seas again only when Great Britain and America give their consent. Until they lift the blockade Germany must be content to navigate the Baltic and the Black Sea—rather restricted waters for her great navy.

and the merchant marine she is said to be building.

Armies may be able to win the war in the East, but armies cannot win it alone in the West. Germany cannot gain her victory until she breaks through the iron walls over which fly the Union Jack and Old Glory.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Editor of the Herald:

Thinking that it is only just that Eliot should have credit for the large proportionate share of war relief work being done in town, I ask a space in your paper.

Eliot has 40 men in her country's service, 12 in the navy and 28 in the army. One young lady has been accepted for foreign service and is awaiting her call. This makes nearly 3 per cent of the population.

Of that number 25 are Eliot High School boys which is a good showing in a school which averages 40 pupils. A band of ladies under Mrs. E. E. Tucker have been doing relief work for the Belgians and French for nearly two years and have made a large number of baby kills as well as hospital garments.

The Eliot Branch York Co. Chapter, American Red Cross, organized last July with 43 members, now numbers 410 or 28 per cent of the population. Since that time we have made up wards of 1200 garments including 200 sweaters, 125 pair socks as well as helmets, mufflers and hospital garments. We are now ready to start on surgical dressings when we are able to get supplies. We have no Junior organization as it was thought inadvisable at present, but the school children have done good work on the patchwork bed spreads made by the schools.

In the second War Fund drive we exceeded our quota thus making a record that I, for one, am proud of.

Great credit in this drive is due to the solicitors and I wish publicly to thank them for their work. They are A. E. Titus, chairman; B. S. Paul, W. H. Folsom, W. O. Kennard, H. G. McCann, Chas. A. Raitt.

Respectfully,

MISS CLIAS F. DRAKE.

Chairman Eliot Branch York Co. Chapter American Red Cross.

RESIGNS POSITION OF FACTORY INSPECTOR

Nutting to Take Position With Paper Co. at Nashua.

Elton L. Nutting, one of the active organized labor men of this state has resigned as factory inspector in connection with the state Bureau of Labor.

A position he has held for nearly a year. He is to accept the position of manager in the employment department of the Nashua Gummed and Coated Paper Company. Mr. Nutting assumed his new duties this week.

Labor Commissioner Davis in whose power the appointment of a successor to Mr. Nutting rests today stated that he had not yet considered the matter.

EDITH CAVELL'S MOTHER DEAD

London, June 18. (Via Ottawa)—Mrs. Ida Cavell, mother of nurse Edith Cavell, executed by the Germans in Belgium, has died at her home, Ilfeney-on-Thames, at the age of 81. She had been in failing health since the death of her daughter.

NAVY YARD NOTES

To Review Naval Reserves

Gov. R. Livingston Beekman of Rhode Island, will inspect the officers and men of the Naval Reserve training barracks at Newport next Saturday morning at 10, accompanied by Mrs. Beekman, Capt. Joseph W. Oman, U. S. N., commandant of the Second Naval District, and Mrs. Oman.

Haverhill Boy Gets Medal

Albert M. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Howard of Haverhill, has been appointed commander of his boat at Hunkin Island, awarded a gold medal by the Navy Department for bravery and selected to attend a Naval college at New York city to study navigation.

Young Howard was until three months ago a senior at Haverhill high school.

Two weeks ago Howard, a Naval Reserve man, was in a launch coming up Boston Harbor. The propeller became entangled in a cable, drawing the craft downward. As she appeared about to sink some of the men jumped and swam ashore.

Young Howard volunteered to cut the cable. After diving and remaining in the water 25 minutes, he succeeded and thus saved the launch.

Sharkey to Enlist in Navy

Tom Sharkey, the plucky heavy-weight that ever battled for the championship, is preparing to enlist in the Navy. Before Sharkey entered the ring as a professional he was a gunner's mate on one of Uncle Sam's battleships. He spent 11 years in the service and still yearns for the sea. Sharkey will be 45 years old in November. He said today:

"If I can't be an officer I'll enlist as an able seaman, for I want to get a crack at the Germans."

Men for the Eals

The navy has sent out a call for cooks and stewards, and is willing to accept any man physically and mentally fit, including friendly aliens who have taken out first papers.

Goes in the Reserve

Harry McDermott, of Providence, formerly employed in the boiler shop of the Portsmouth yard, has enlisted in the Naval Reserve.

New On Duty Here

Peter Pullen of this city, a yeoman in the service who has been on duty at the Boston yard, has been transferred to the local yard.

Make a Good Start

The first day of the campaign for the sale of war theft stamps was very successful at the local navy yard. The night shift alone employed in the electrical shops purchased to the amount of $1,200.

Call a Few More Women

A call was made today for twelve female operators, 2 firemen, 1 engineer and 1 teamster. The call for the women is the smallest number required at one time since they began to register.

Pleased With Osborne

The Somersworth correspondent of the Dover Democrat has the following on the visit of Lieut. Comdr. Thomas Mott Osborne:

One of the most fascinating and compelling addresses which has been delivered in Somersworth was given Sunday night by Thomas M. Osborne, Lieutenant-Commander of the Portsmouth Naval Prison, recently of Sing Sing at the High Street Methodist church. Mr. Osborne prefaced his address with a narration of the circumstances which caused him to leave his private business and enter upon the work of reformation among our prisoners and prisoners. He said that the reformation of the prisoner is the work of the prisoner himself, but the reformation of the prison is our work. Many of the "stupid, brutal" methods of punishment and management of the men in stripes were narrated and Mr. Osborne spoke from a position of knowledge of the inside because he spent a time in both the Auburn State Prison and the Naval Prison, before beginning his official relation, in order to study the conditions from the prisoner's side.

Mr. Osborne was secured through the Men's Club of the High Street Methodist church and Mr. E. C. Andrews, the president of the Club, presided. The large audience present are very eager that Mr. Osborne shall repeat his visit.

RAILROAD NOTES

Split Tickets Good

The "split-ticket," used for transportation on the steam railroads on June 12, has been restored to favor again by orders issued by the general passenger agents of New England railroads. Conductors on train being operated in and out of Boston began quietly accepting such tickets for transportation, much to the surprise and keen satisfaction of the patrons of the railroads.

It has been the custom of regular patrons of the railroads who make long journeys to use a commutation ticket for a part of their journey, and then a mileage or regular ticket for the remainder, and in this way they saved a considerable sum. When the new passenger rates went into effect on

BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION AT EXETER

65th Annual Meeting of Portsmouth Baptist Sunday School Association.

The 65th annual convention of the Portsmouth Baptist Sunday School Association was held Tuesday at the Baptist church, Exeter, with a good representation from this district from Portsmouth, Exeter, Amesbury, Newton, Plalstow, Brentwood, Hampton Falls and South Hampton.

The convention was opened at 10.15 by a song and prayer service led by Rev. Fred D. Johnson of South Hampton. The address of welcome was by Justin E. Moulton of Exeter. This was followed by an address on "Is a Graded Sunday School Practicable in a Country Church," by Rev. F. C. Snell of Dover.

The report of Secretary Oscar E. Huse of Hampton showed a good standing and a large number of delegates present. Letters were read from the various Sunday schools of the district, showing the work accomplished during the past year. A question box was conducted by Rev. E. B. Scales of Somersworth. Dinner was served at 12.30 in the vestry.

The afternoon session was opened at 2 o'clock by a song service and prayer by Rev. Asa Morrison of Plalstow. This was followed by an address on "How to Make Boys and Girls Study the Bible" by Rev. A. H. Pixley of Hampton Falls, one by Mrs. Edith Black Wright, representing the New Hampshire Sunday School Association on "A War Time Program for the Sunday School," and Rev. S. J. Cunn of Amesbury, on "Can the Sunday School Be the Means of Tying Up the Youth to the Larger Interests of the Church."

The closing address of the day was by Rev. Hugh C. Burr of Haverhill, on "God's Standard Sunday School." Miss Grace R. Landon of Exeter presided at the organ as accompanist for the musical program.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

What can be said or how much can be printed these days is a question, but it may not be out of order to inquire who is responsible for the Portsmouth navy yard being replaced by Boston as the home yard for ships formerly based here.

June 12 all "stop-overs" and the use of these "split tickets" were prohibited.

Railroad Surgeons

The U. & M. has printed the following for the guidance of its employees: All station agents, trainmen, or other employees, having occasion to call a physician, or surgeon, to attend a passenger, employee, or other person injured while in train or on premises of the railroad, will act promptly to notify the railroad's surgeon. If not available, and a local surgeon must be called, the railroad will be responsible only for such primary treatment as is necessary for the proper transportation of injured person to residence or hospital. In all cases where further treatment is required, the railroad's surgeon will take charge.

If the injured person is a trespasser, the railroad will take such action as may be humane for first aid, and if any further attention is required and the injured person has no home or visible means, he should be turned over to the proper local authorities. If in such case, hospital treatment is required, the hospital should be immediately notified that the railroad will not be responsible for expense.

The railroad will not be responsible for bills of any surgeons other than the railroad surgeons except as above, or such as are especially authorized by the Claim Department.

The following appointments have been made by the U. & M. to serve on the company's medical corps: Dr. E. W. Dwight, Chief Surgeon, Boston, Mass.; Hildeford, Me., Dr. William J. Maybury, Exeter, Dr. John G. W. Knowlton, Lynn, Dr. George H. Gray, North Conway, Dr. George H. Shedd, Rochester, Dr. Louis L. Gilman, Dover, Dr. H. C. Chesley, Lawrence, Dr. A. H. Cutler, Newburyport, Dr. C. G. Day, Portsmouth, Dr. J. J. Henry, Salem, Mass., Dr. J. E. Simpson, Manchester, Dr. J. F. Robinson.

Yet Undecided

Reports have it that the Boston & Maine is yet undecided as to the location of the proposed new roundhouse at Dover. There is also some talk of a different location for the Dover depot which would eliminate the danger occasioned by the crossings in that city.

Plans Changed Again

It is reported that the Boston & Maine have once again changed the plans of yard improvements spoken of for Portsmouth yard for the past 15 years. It is hoped that something may come out of the latest reports from the fact that the government now has a hand in it.

ENTERTAINED

THE MARINES

Social Given in Their Honor at the Methodist Church.

The Forward Class of the Methodist parish again extended hospitality Tuesday evening to the men in the service when a party of 50 or more were hospitably entertained at the vestry of that society. The special guests on this occasion were members from the navy yard.

After all had been cordially greeted by the pastor, Rev. Rollin S. Tuttle, and paraded, the evening's program opened with the singing of popular airs. Archie Marshall, providing at the piano. After the chords singing the young people were divided into four groups and each side held a friendly rivalry in the games. The telegram game and others, and various stunts by the enlisted men resulted in much merriment. The games concluded, refreshments of assorted cake and coffee were served and upon departure the marines expressed much pleasure for the entertainment given them.

The pastor, Rev. Rollin S. Tuttle, was in general charge of the social. Archie Marshall was chairman of the committee from the Forward Class, his assistants being Chester B. Clough, Fred DeJelle, Ralph Bridle and Dwight Walker.

OPEN DOVER POINT BRIDGE ON THURSDAY

Quick Work Since Its Destruction on March 14.

On Thursday the Boston and Maine railroad will open the reconstructed section of the Dover Point highway bridge. It was expected that travel would be allowed there today but owing to some minor work by the builders it was thought best to complete the same before allowing the resumption of traffic.

The work of Miller Brothers, the contractors, is a credit to that firm of builders who have done something every minute since they undertook the job.

With a scarcity of labor and much delay in material, the job is a quick one when it is considered that the same firm rebuilt the two draws on the Portsmouth and Kittery bridge during the same time.

The bridge was carried away by ice on March 14 and it was a month or more after before building operations were undertaken.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the U. S. Public Health Commission are getting busy.

That the rooms taken at City Hall for the work are being made over for that purpose.

That people on Market Square were amused on Tuesday evening at the actions of two pigeons.

That the birds had some reason for a scrap and the battle took place on the hands of the North church clock.

That they landed on the hands at 7.15 and went to it in good style.

That the weight of the birds caused the hand to drop back a little while the scrap was on.

That Portsmouth sub-postoffice are not yet ready for business and won't be for many moons.

That if ever anything needed a cleaning out its the South Mill Pond.

That if you want your money's worth in riding on a railroad even with increased fare, take a trip from Concord to Portsmouth any day after Sunday next.

That you can ride nearly all the afternoon on this 57 mile trip for one fare.

That the government says no more stopovers but the Boston and Maine gives the patrons 53 minutes at Rockingham whether they want it or not.

WOMAN AND THE LAW

COMING TO THE Colonial Theatre

JACK LA SALLE, JR.

JACK LA SALLE

Here is the man who threw the love of a woman to the four winds; who trampled her soul beneath the very feet of indiscretion; who robbed her of contentment, but in return gave her a SON. When outraged feeling, injured honor, could bear no more and she secured from society the right to face her friends with head erect—he tried to steal from her the only honorable incident of their wedded life—HER SON. Then she, too, threw discretion to the winds and took nature's original way—DEFENDING HERSELF.

Here is the one honorable issue of their wedded sphere. This boy, innocent and guileless, paid tribute to his mother as the embodiment of all that was pure and sweet, and worshipped her at his youthful altar. To his father, he gave the suspicious affection of a child who knows wrong doing only by that queer childish instinct with which he has been endowed by an all-seeing, all-knowing Maker. THEN CAME THE CRASH! Tumbling about his ears, the domestic bliss fell in pieces and all that was left was the never ending love of a mother. A blinding flash, a groan, a horror stricken mother staggering into his presence, a sincere hug and the warm pressure of outraged lips was his first knowledge that his name had been cleansed and his future made certain.

MRS. JACK LA SALLE

After suffering every humiliation a faithful wife could bear—broken in hope, driven to despair, SHE secured her freedom and consecrated her life to her boy. THEN, when he tried to rob her of her only consolation, HER SON, the thin veneer of civilization cracked and she became the mother. She defender herself as the lioness would, as the humble mole or grout tiger. HE SLEW THE DESTROYER of her happiness and stood in the eyes of the world—A WOMAN HONORED.

Thirty-five or more police officers connected with the Atlantic corporation at Freeman's Point are now rigged out in uniforms. The uniforms arrived on Tuesday and were today distributed by Chief L. A. Thompson.

The men will hereafter be seen in grey, similar to the rig of the Metropolitan police. The fine appearance of some of Chief Thompson's men is leading to the question why they have not long ago donned the police uniform and acted as guardians of the peace.

TRAINING SCHOOL GRADUATION

Three Graduates Receive Diplomas at Closing Exercises at the High School Hall

The graduation exercises of the Portsmouth Training School were held at the Assembly hall at the high school on Tuesday evening and there was a good attendance.

The Training school a branch of the school department has its headquarters at the Fairbank school and is under the direction of Miss Milgram. There are but three graduates this year Miss Helen Frances Butler, Clara May Dixon and Frances Evelyn Young.

The exercises consisted of a selection by the Whipple school orchestra, a patriotic drill by the members of the Junior Class of the Training school with the invocation by Rev. Alfred Gooding.

This address was given by Dr. William C. T. Adams of the Plymouth Normal school.

The diplomas were presented by Mrs. Alfred Gooding for the Training school committee and he prefaced the presentation with a short talk to the graduates that was very interesting.

The subjects of the thesis of the graduates were, Miss Butler "Outwork Traditions in Teaching," Miss Dixon "Planning the Work and Working the Plan," Miss Young, "The Value of Dramatization."

Following the closing selection by the orchestra an informal reception to the graduates was held.

The Portsmouth Training school has a high standing in the state and is rated by the State Board of Public Instruction on a par with the Normal schools. It is a two years' course and the graduates are well grounded in the theory as well as with actual practice.

ARMY LOSES TO THE Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. defeated the Army in a closely played game in the Sunset league on Tuesday evening by a score of 6 to 3. The Y. M. C. A. won the game in the second inning on a combination of three hits and three men hit by the pitcher, which batted five runs enough to get a comfortable lead that the army could not overcome. After this inning the game was fast in spots, but the Y. M. C. A. hit both the army pitchers freely.

Elche pitched a good game for the winners having excellent control and he finished his position well, accepting five chances. For the army, Stone played a fast game at second and Elson at first.

The Y. M. C. A. stored away the game in the second after while had failed. Thomas hit both Smith and Currier and they scored on Kirkpatrick's triple to right and he scored on Elche's single. McWilliams hit to Stone who forced Elche at second. Cragen was struck and Davis hit for two bases over second scoring McWilliams and Cragen. Thomas hit to Stone and Davis was thrown out at the plate.

Krausfelder succeeded. Thomas, in the third and he immediately got in a light place. Whittle singled and stole second. Smith walked and Currier singled filling the bases. Kirkpatrick fled to Elson who doubled Currier and Elche was thrown out at first. The Y. M. C. A. scored in the fifth after while had struck out. Smith hit for two bases and Currier helped to right, scoring Smith but he was held at third as Kirkpatrick fanned and was thrown out at first.

The Army scored in the second on a home run. Stone singled but he was unable to score. Elche's faulting. Walker forcing Stone at third and Hucoski and Elson going out over the air route.

In the third they scored two more runs. Carroll singled. Underland hit to McWilliams who missed it by and Kirkpatrick was hit hitting the bases. Elche grounded to Davis and Carroll scored. Cragen being out at first. Stone hit ball through Davis and Underland scored. But Kirkpatrick fled to Elche and Walker was thrown out at first.

The score:

	Y. M. C. A.	Army
McWilliams, 2b.	4	1
Cragen, c.f.	2	1
Davis, 3b.	4	0
Thomas, s.s.	4	0
Whittle, 1b.	4	0
Smith, c.	1	2
Currier, 1b.	2	1
Kirkpatrick, r.f.	3	1

Home runs: Clark; three base hits: Davis, Currier, Kirkpatrick; two base hits: Davis; hit by pitched ball: Cragen, Smith, Currier, Thomas; stolen bases: Whittle, Stone; sacrifice hit: Cragen; base on balls off Thomas; struck out by Elche, 3, by Thomas 3; Elson unassisted; Cragen and McWilliams; Time 1hr. 10m.; Umpire Woods and Jefferson.

HINDENBERG SAID TO BE IN SANITARIUM

Geneva, June 19.—The Tribune says it learns from a reliable source that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is suffering from an acute nervous disease, that his mental capacity is much affected, and that he is confined in a private sanatorium.

The newspaper adds that Hindenburg took no responsible part in the recent offensive on the western battle front, the work being chiefly done by General Ludendorff.

SPECIALIZED CLERKS URGENTLY NEEDED.

Expert clerical work has a more important place in the Government's war organization than most people realize. We all know that the war can not be won in the trenches alone; that an effective establishment at home is vital to the success of the big job ever undertaken by any nation; but the full extent to which the specialized clerk is needed is, perhaps not generally understood. And it is in this class of work that women have the best opportunity to be of real service to the Government at this time.

In the national capital alone, the civilian force increased from 30,000 to nearly 50,000 during the first year of our participation in the war. Ninety per cent of the new employees are clerks of one kind or another, and fully three-fourths of them are women. 18,000 stenographers and typists are at work constantly in the Government offices at Washington and the tens of thousands of clerical positions made necessary by war preparations on a scale such as the world has never before known.

General clerks, that is, those without a specialty, are not difficult to obtain even under present conditions, but the United States Civil Service Commission, charged with the duty of recruiting the civil service to meet war needs, is experiencing difficulty in obtaining a sufficient number of applicants for many clerical positions which require special training or experience. There is an urgent call for applicants for the positions of typewriter, clerk-bookkeeper, cost accountant, accounting and statistical clerk, stenographer, index and mailing clerk, schedule clerk, passenger-rate clerk, positions are open to both men and women. Representatives of the Civil Service Commission at the post offices in all cities are prepared to furnish definite information and application blanks.

WILL BUILD COAL BARGES FOR NEW ENGLAND

Boston, June 18.—Word comes from Washington today confirming of recent despatches that the United States Shipping Board will build coal barges for the New England business. Chairman Edward N. Hurley this morning Mayor Peters in a reply to a recent letter detailing Boston's facilities for the building of ships and expressing the hope that the Government would utilize them. Chairman Hurley wrote as follows:

I am greatly obliged to you for your frank letter of June 12 regarding the facilities for shipbuilding of the city of Boston. I am fully aware of the advantages that Boston possesses in this direction and I am sure that Mr. Schwab and the other officials of the Emergency Fleet Corporation have them likewise in mind. I am taking the liberty, however, of forwarding your letter to Mr. Schwab.

I realize also the anxiety of Boston and New England to provide an adequate supply of coal. This situation has been having our most earnest consideration, with a view to taking care of New England's necessary coal requirements. I have personally interested myself in the matter and we have been considering a considerable number of barges for the New England coal trade.

I appreciate your interest in writing me and assure you that your suggestions will always receive my personal attention.

SWEDEN'S BRITISH SEAMEN'S ORGANIZATION

Ordered on Arrival at Gothenburg to Leave Country at Once.

Christiania, June 18. (Via Ottawa). Representatives of the United Kingdom men's Union, who had come to Sweden to confer with the Swedish seamen with reference to an international convention, were ordered on their arrival at Gothenburg, to leave Sweden at once. They had been at Copenhagen. Representatives of the British Seamen's conference.

Successful Camouflage.

(From the Portland Oregonian). It is well known that the Germans employ prisoners of war to train the treatment they receive and permit no letters to pass, which contain complaints, but one American prisoner evaded their vigilance, when he wrote to his parents at Minneapolis the following apparently facetious letter: We are having the very best treatment. The Germans provide us with the best of everything. We could not be better treated if we were with our own people. There is only one thing we could wish for, and that is to be at Lakewood Park.

Lakewood Park is a cemetery.

Disease Due to Dietetic Errors. I have come to the conclusion that more than half the disease which afflicts life is due to avoidable errors in diet, and that more mischief is done in the form of actual disease, of impaired vigor, and of shortened life, by agencies of civilized man from erroneous habits of eating than from the habitual use of alcoholic drink, considerable as I know that evil to be.—Sir Henry Thompson, M. D.

Why Women Bear Pain.

Women bear pain better than men, as is well known, but Dr. R. O'Neill Kane says that their tranquillity is often deceptive, being stolen submission rather than lack of feeling. He believes women are less often affected by shock than men; they endure surgical operations better and pass under anesthesia more rapidly, quietly and safely.

Has Almost Constant Rainfall.

Curiously enough, it is in India that we find the wettest town in the whole world, according to a British agricultural expert in India. The town, where there is an almost constant rainfall, is called Cherapunchi, in Assam. Its average rainfall is 600 inches or 50 feet a year, which is nearly a foot a week.

Work Must Be Respected.

Any painter will tell you that the sketch he begins carelessly, with a flourish of paint, ends by being discarded and is frequently left unfinished. Any employer will admit the same experience. Work to be a pleasure must be respected. It must be approached as a dignified and honorable affair.

True Friendship.

A true friendship is one of human kind's sweetest ties, and it should be sacredly regarded. That sterling soul who always has a smile for us—who sees in us only what is fine and commendable—should not, and will not, if we are made of the right stuff, be annoyed by our over-familiarity.

Dreaded Partisan Cavalry.

The most famous cavalrymen of antiquity were the Partisans. Their invasion of Judea, 40 B. C., resulted in such terrible devastation of the country that 100 years later the ferocity of the Partisan invasion gave the Apostle John the idea for one of his most vivid pictures.

Nature the Nurse.

The human body is so adjusted that when attacked, it automatically defends itself, and when wounded it pulls out its first-aid kit to repair the injury. And living organisms of the lower animal world and the vegetable world are balanced just so.—Minneapolis Journal.

First Dill Pickle.

Roberta had her first dill pickle recently. The next day at school Miss Bass had her little pupils paint a dill pickle. A few days later Roberta said: "Mother, was that a dill pickle I had?"—Indianapolis News.

Bacon's Tribute to Books.

They are true friends that will neither matter nor assemble. Be you but true to yourself, applying that which they teach into the party grieved, and you shall need no other comfort nor counsel.—Bacon "On Books."

Yes, When?

"There is nothing said when rents are lowered," said a real estate agent. "Well, bite. When are they lowered? Oh, when were they lowered?"—Reading Telegram.

Washington, June 18.—Three men and one woman were taken into custody charged with stealing blueprints of the Browning gun and of time fuses and set. They admitted that they made working drawings of the Browning gun.

BRITISH BOMB U-BOAT BASES

London, June 18.—Extensive damage was caused by British submarines between June 13 and June 16 to the docks at Zeebrugge, Ostend and Bruges, the Thourout railway station and the Ghent docks, the Ghent docks, the Leopold Basin, the Frederick Battery and the lock gates at Ostend. Five was started in buildings at the junction of the canal and the Leopold Basin.

Bombs were also observed on the mole at Zeebrugge and near the lock gates. At Bruges bombs were seen on the northeast quay, alongside the west basin on the northern floating wet dock, on the east side of the dock, and between the north and east quays, as well as at the south end of the canal basin. The railway at Thourout was also hit. Nearly twenty-four tons of bombs were dropped, and all the dock buildings returned with the exception of the main building.

Bombs were dropped on an enemy vessel. During the same period, not only the docks but also the city of Bruges was hit. Bombs were also observed on the mole at Zeebrugge and near the lock gates. "HEARTS OF THE WORLD" SOLD FOR $75,000.

Some idea of the vast sums invested in motion pictures may be gained from the announcement that the New England rights for D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World," now at the Majestic Theatre, were recently purchased for the sum of $75,000. The buyers, including William H. O'Neill of Boston, A. A. Spitz of Providence, Goldstein Brothers of Springfield and Alfred J. Black of Rockland, Me., have formed a corporation to be known as "The Hearts of the World Company of New England," and will present the Griffith masterpiece throughout the principal cities and towns of New England immediately following the engagement at the Majestic Theatre here in Boston. Recently it was reported that "Hearts of the World" was secured for the Pacific Coast territory for the handsome sum of $100,000, with the territory limited to but five cities at the Coast. The states of Illinois and Pennsylvania are said to have been restricted for the sum of $100,000 each.

The purchase of the New England rights to "Hearts of the World" also includes the active management of the Boston engagement at the Majestic Theatre. When Mr. Griffith's production first came to Boston it was managed by the theatrical producer, John W. O'Neill, of Boston, and remained under this management until a few weeks ago, when it was taken over by Albert J. Grey, personal representative for Mr. Griffith. Throughout the remainder of its stay at the Majestic the film will be handled by the recently formed New England corporation. First week, the local manager, under Griffith, Comstock and Grey, has returned to New York and will handle the business arrangements for another territory, while Robert Edgar Long, who has looked after the publicity campaign here in Boston, will shortly leave for New York to become general press representative for Mr. Griffith in all territory where the producer personally presents his great picture.

Meantime "Hearts of the World" goes merrily on at the Majestic Theatre, having past the 100th performance, and with all indications pointing toward an all-summer engagement.

ROCK AND WHITE

Continuous Boston Engagement at Ye Wilbur

So successful has been the engagement of Mr. Rock and Miss White at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, that finding themselves unable to arrange for an extension of their stay at that house they have decided to move to Ye Wilbur Theatre, Boston, where they will meet the great popular demand for a continuance of their entertainment and thoroughly delightful entertainment.

William Rock and Frances White, in their delightful and intimate revue of music, dance and chatter are displaying the big success that made them prime favorites with New York audiences, during their two years of service with the Ziegfeld Midnight Frolic, at the Coconut Grove, that gathering place of elite New Yorkers atop the New Amsterdam Theatre.

This remarkable entertainment, which is described on the play bills as "the most delightful entertainment of the season" but very rarely gives any impression of its extraordinary cleverness and the broad versatility and very interesting artistry of William Rock and Frances White, who stand responsible for this delightful collection of originality.

Few young women possess in so marked a degree that untangible quality called personal magnetism. A dozen the fascinating Frances White, the little girl who out of the west two years ago, unknown and unheralded, arrived in New York and in a comparatively short period, a few years, became the idol of Broadway audiences, by reason of her native charm and ability.

William Rock, a fine character comedian, an unusually sincere worker and an excellent dancer nightly adds slow laurel to his clever and delightful performance.

Jack Gardner, for his contribution of song and story rightfully comes in for great praise. Last but not least there is also the New York Club of 26 musicians and really funny comedians. It is a great treat to listen to their jazz music, also their negro spirituals, which they sing with rare style and humor. All in all the entertainment is one long evening of joy and real fun. Popular price matinees will be given on Wednesdays when the best orchestra seats are only one dollar.

ESCAPED NAVAL PRISONER BACK IN THE TOILS

James Evans, Who Got Away on June 4, Arrested in Pennsylvania.

The second period of freedom of James Evans, a prisoner at the U. S. Naval Prison, was like the first, of short duration. Evans is back in the "stone freight" so-called on Seavey's Island. He has enjoyed a little over two weeks liberty following his departure on June 4. He landed at the prison on Tuesday night from Coatesville, Penn., where he was arrested by the police of that city on information furnished by the New York police. He was in the care of a guard sent from the prison.

Evans, who is a fireman, was serving a sentence of 18 months when he made his first escape. The court martial board added six years to the original sentence after his first escape in February, following his arrest in Lawrence, Mass.

It is understood that the man who assisted him in his last escape is now serving a long sentence at the prison. Evans evidently hit it rich in Pennsylvania, as he was dolled up in the height of fashion when the police placed him under arrest.

54TH ANNIVERSARY
OF THE KEARSARGE-
ALABAMA FIGHT

Many Portsmouth Men Members of Crew Which Destroyed Commerce
Raider.

Fifty-four years ago today the U. S. ship of war Kearsarge defeated and sank the Confederate commerce raider Alabama off the coast of Cherbourg, France, and was witnessed by many persons on shore.

The Kearsarge was commanded by Capt. Winslow, and the Alabama by Capt. Sims. The greater part of the crew of the Kearsarge were New Hampshire men, and many were from Portsmouth and vicinity.

The Kearsarge was built in record time at the local navy yard and succeeded in destroying the Confederate raider which had long been sought by the northern ships.

Mr. H. Hoyt, of Portsmouth, and a member of the Kearsarge's gun crew, is credited with having fired the shot which did the most damage to the Alabama. Mr. Hoyt now resides in Manchester. There are less than a dozen survivors of the Kearsarge's crew alive today.

GETS NEWS OF HIS BROTHER'S DEATH

Word Came While He Was Suffering Himself From Injuries.

Friends of Thomas D. McLaughlin of this city and Cleveland, will be sorry to learn of the death of his 19 year old brother who was killed in France while serving as a cadet in the British Royal Naval Flying Corps. Previous to learning of his brother's death he was quite badly injured himself in a bayonet drill at Camp Hancock, Georgia, where he is serving with the 7th Company and attending the Bayonet and Physical Training school.

He was a former chauffeur for Francis D. Drake of Hye and left Portsmouth in one of the recent drafts.

ENJOYED OUTING

A pleasant outing was enjoyed Tuesday by the Golden Rule Circle of King's Daughters at the summer home of Mrs. Amos O. Benfield at Wallis Sands. Twenty or more members of that organization were present, making the trip down in the early forenoon. The time was passed in sociability and a number of the members brought their Red Cross knitting. All brought picnic lunches and the hostess provided baked beans and hot coffee. The day was ideal for an out of door gathering and it was a success in every way.

WAITING FOR HIS COMMISSION

An item in yesterday's Herald stated that Dr. Charles B. Johnston was to take an examination for the army medical corps next week. Dr. Johnston has already taken his examination which he passed successfully and is now awaiting a commission.

All of the doctors under 55 years of age by this city have received questionnaires which, if they desire to enter the medical corps of the army, they must fill out, then they have to take an examination after which, if they pass successfully, they are given a commission.

COMING NUPTIALS

WILL SEND MORE MEN TO DURHAM

A Call for Nine Draftees Issued for July 1; Must Volunteer Before June 21.

A second call for draftees to enter the government training school at New Hampshire State college at Durham has been made. Official orders on the call were received yesterday by the local draft board and placed the date of entrainment as July 1. From the state 200 men will be called and from Portsmouth nine men.

Men qualified for general military education and who show some aptitude for work along mechanical lines are desired in this call. It is open for registrants to volunteer up to June 21. The orders read that the men will receive a course of training as auto tradesmen, blacksmiths, carpenters, concrete workers, electricians, machinists and gas engine men.

The bulletin from Gov. Henry W. Keyes states that at the end of the course the men will be assigned to various branches in the service in accordance with the needs of the army. They will receive no assurance of the assignment to any particular branch of service.

In the other call made to New Hampshire State college, on May 10, the state supplied 340 men. Following are the county quotas in the July 1 call: Belknap 13, Carroll 3, Cheshire 18, Coos 27, Grafton 18, Hillsboro No. 1, 16, No. 2, 3, Manchester No. 1, 14, No. 2, 16, No. 3, 11, Merrimack No. 1, 7, No. 2, 16, Rockingham No. 1, 8, No. 2, 9, Strafford 16, Sullivan 16. The train schedule for the call has not been sent out.

War-Time Economies are Abundant in This Great JUNE CLEARANCE SALE

Never before in the history of this store has the June Clearance Sales attained the importance of this sale of June, 1918. Every item has a special significance in savings, representing more than savings of monetary value, for it is conservatively assumed that a great many of the qualities offered in this sale will not again be procurable at anything like the present prices.

The June Clearance—no matter what the conditions, is an unalterable part of our merchandising system, and must be held, for through this event our stocks are made ready for the new season.
